Epidemiological Modelling

Here at StrokeCog, we are building an innovative, epidemiological model that tracks post-stroke cognitive impairment and dementia progression over time, projecting from now until 2046, and evaluating the effects of introducing cognitive rehabilitation post-stroke to reduce the impact of cognitive impairment.